

NEWS ITEMS.

There are 10,000 applications for the 24 captains in the new regular regiments.

Pulling Canada thistle when long 6 inches high will effectually destroy them.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some "Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?"

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position. The Academy, formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son. She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor. In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A. The State Convention held at Syracuse on the 5th, Governor Foster was recommended for highest position. General Woodford was nominated for Lieutenant Governor. Stephen G. Hoyt for General Commissioner, and General Hovey for Inspector of State Prisons.

WHO DID IT?

The Republicans in Congress labored through the efforts of the Freedmen to provide protection for the Freedmen in their newly acquired rights. How much did the Democrats in Congress do toward the object?

The Republicans in Congress sought earnestly and persistently to provide some means of securing the personal safety and the rights of the persecuted Union men of the South, and of the slaves of the defeated rebels. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress endeavored to give the regularity of a statute emanating from the reconstruction plan of President Johnson, and to place upon our records the terms of readmission as a future security for the South and North. How much did the Democrats in Congress do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress tried to extend the boundaries of the Freedmen to abolish the bounds of the republic, the evils of caste, second only to those of slavery. How much did the Democrats do toward the object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought by legislation and by constitutional amendment to guarantee to every citizen of the republic equality of civil rights before the law. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought by legislation and by constitutional amendment to give the regularity of a statute emanating from the reconstruction plan of President Johnson, and to place upon our records the terms of readmission as a future security for the South and North. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress tried to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to guard against all forms of Southern rebellion by amending the Constitution so as to make the debt ineligible. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress tried to extend the boundaries of the Freedmen to abolish the bounds of the republic, the evils of caste, second only to those of slavery. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to extend the boundaries of the Freedmen to abolish the bounds of the republic, the evils of caste, second only to those of slavery. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to extend the boundaries of the Freedmen to abolish the bounds of the republic, the evils of caste, second only to those of slavery. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to extend the boundaries of the Freedmen to abolish the bounds of the republic, the evils of caste, second only to those of slavery. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress provided, in the Freedmen's Bureau, a means of defending the rights of the emancipated slaves against the oppression of their state masters, civil agents and tribunals. How much did the Democrats do toward that object?

The Republicans in Congress sought to break up the foundations of Southern rebellion by making citizenship naturalization, did the Democrats do toward that object?

R "The wonderful progress of Medical Science during the past six years only makes it possible for the medical profession to be as certainly cited as heretofore. The present year has been presented as 'The Year of the King,' M.D., D.Sc."

KING'S PREPARED PRESCRIPTION.

(Made from the Prescription of Rev. Chas. E. King, M. D., Prof. and M. D. of Boston.)

"The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday. A very intelligent colored man named Holmes, his wife, and about eight others were with him, but who will all be here to-morrow, proportions of which are given to us, said "Well, give you all the best we can for to-morrow, the old men are gone, and I am going on." So they all go in a choir, and immediately expire.

New York, American Slave Narratives.—A.

The wife of John C. Breckinridge, now in Canada with her husband, presented him with some 'Dearest children, belong to Godless or the United States?'

They had a "grand banquet" in Paris the other day, and there were over a hundred and eighty-four invited guests who were and enough, took the grandest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Formerly at the University of Vermont, is principal of the High School.

A lady of Indianapolis, the other day, informed me that she was waiting for her son.

She continued this conversation until the girl in struggling to free herself, burst a blood-vessel, and died.

The late Doctor having treated a similar case in my office, and again no one is proned to the physician to be the best treating doctor.

In this country, The Hotel, owned by Mr. Bonney, is said to be a model hotel.

A young quartette club recently surprised a seruit in the house of a gentleman in St. Louis. The young ladies of the family thought their party were their own audience and accordingly took them up in a bowing, smiling, and laughing, with the greatest gude.

The report of the Board of Education of Detroit shows the schools in that city to be in a most satisfactory position.

Wise people wait not to seek the minister in action. Suppose you are sick, and discovered?

Two remarkably considerate and discerning Negro Falls on Tuesday.